

The management of GRUPO CONSIST is committed to offering its Customers reliable, safe and high quality flexible packaging products. For this reason our activity must be based on the following principles:

1. Identifying the needs of our Customers and responding to them with appropriate solutions.
2. Respecting the requirements stated by our Customers and by the current regulations, and taking into consideration the relevant suggestions issued by all interested parties involved in our activity.
3. Continuously improving our products, services and operations with a focus on risk and opportunity management.
4. Preserving a stable workforce and involving it in the manufacturing of quality and safe products.
5. Maintaining a close relationship with suppliers in order to be informed of any innovation in raw materials and machinery, and transfer it to our Customers.
